

Losing You – Dead by April

What I have in me, in my mind is you
I would die if we were through
What I'm feeling now what I'm heading into
I am lost in pain without you
So cold, so alone

All I have is you
It is all that I'm breathing for
All I need is you
Now I can't make it through

All the nights I've prayed
Must this all be untrue
I am not prepared to be strong
I just can't believe
I am losing you
Unprepared to carry on
I can't see you walk away
So cold, so alone

All I have is you
It is all that I'm breathing for
All I need is you
Now I can't make it through
I am losing you forever
I am lost in pain without you
I am leaving ground forever

Distant, so far, destiny is selecting me
I can't be strong life is disconnecting me
Now loneliness infecting me
Gone are the days
You were there protecting me
So cold, so alone

All I have is you

It is all that I'm breathing for
All I need is you
Now I can't make it through
I am losing you forever
I am lost in pain without you
I am leaving ground forever

All I have is you
It is all that I'm breathing for
All I need is you
Now I can't make it through
