

Dancing with the devil – Demi Lovato

Ooh, oh, oh

It's just a little red wine, I'll be fine

Not like I wanna do this every night

I've been good, don't I deserve it?

I think I earned it, feels like it's worth it

In my mind, mind

Twisted reality, hopeless insanity

I told you I was okay, but I was lying

I was dancing with the devil

Out of control

Almost made it to heaven

It was closer than you know

Playing with the enemy

Gambling with my soul

It's so hard to say no

When you're dancing with the devil

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

Yeah, yeah

It's just a little white line, I'll be fine

But soon that little white line

Is a little glass pipe

Tin foil remedy almost got the best of me

I keep praying I don't reach

The end of my lifetime, mm

Twisted reality, hopeless insanity

I told you I was okay, but I was lying

I was dancing with the devil

Out of control

Almost made it to heaven

It was closer than you know

Playing with the enemy

Gambling with my soul

It's so hard to say no

When you're dancing with the devil

Thought I knew my limit, yeah

I thought that I could quit it, yeah

I thought that I could walk away easily
But here I am, falling down on my knees
Praying for better days to come
And wash this pain away
Could you please forgive me?
Lord, I'm sorry for dancing with the devil
Oh, yeah, yeah
Dancing with the devil
Out of control
Almost made it to heaven
It was closer than you know
(closer than you know)
Playing with the enemy (oh)
Gambling with my soul
It's so hard to say no
When you're dancing with the devil
Mm, yeah, mm
