

Lovely lady of Arcadia – Demis Roussos

We met one magic summer day
A dream came true and blew away
For us our love began to grow
The time had come for me to go
Now all that I am living for
Is to come back to you once more
Lovely lady of Arcadia
Promise you will wait for me
In your arms I found my Shangrila
And it's where I long to be
Lost in love eternally
I feel alone among the crowds
And sunny skies are filled with clouds
I miss your kiss and your embrace
The tempting smile that lights your face
And just as long as we're apart
The same old song will haunt my heart
Lovely lady of Arcadia
Promise you will wait for me
In your arms I found my Shangrila
And it's where I long to be
Lost in love eternally
Lovely lady of Arcadia
When these lonely days are through
I will stay and pray Arcadia
Shall be paradise for two
Paradise for me and you
Shall be paradise for two
Paradise for me and you
