

Outnumbered – Dermot Kennedy

Don't tell me this is all for nothing
I can only tell you one thing
On the nights you feel outnumbered
Baby, I'll be out there somewhere

I see everything you can be
I see the beauty that you can't see
On the nights you feel outnumbered
Baby, I'll be out there somewhere

I could've showed you all the scars at the start
But that was always the most difficult part
See I'm in love with how your soul's a
Mix of chaos and art
And how you never try to keep 'em apart

I wrote some words and then I stared at my feet
Became a coward when I needed to speak
I guess love took on a different
Kind of meaning for me
So when I go just know it kills me to leave

To all the stars that light the road
Don't ever leave that girl so cold
Never let me down, just lead me home

Don't tell me this is all for nothing
I can only tell you one thing
On the nights you feel outnumbered
Baby, I'll be out there somewhere

I see everything you can be
I see the beauty that you can't see
On the nights you feel outnumbered
Baby, I'll be out there somewhere

But there's beauty here that's yet to depart
There's still a song inside the halls in the dark
I'll come for you if you just stay where you are
And I'll always hold your hand in the car

There'll be days when it's difficult
But I ask you to never leave behind the reciprocal,
We're past that
Love is not designed for the cynical
So we have that
We can have that

To all the stars that light the road
Don't ever leave that girl so cold
Never let me down, just lead me home

Don't tell me this is all for nothing
I can only tell you one thing
On the nights you feel outnumbered
Baby, I'll be out there somewhere

I see everything you can be
I see the beauty that you can't see
On the nights you feel outnumbered
Baby, I'll be out there somewhere

How long can you wait for the one you deserve
Fight on
Never let it out
Never let it out

If I'm gone
If you ever leave I hope that you learn to fight on
To fight on

Don't tell me this is all for nothing
I can only tell you one thing
On the nights you feel outnumbered
Baby, I'll be out there somewhere

I see everything you can be
I see the beauty that you can't see
On the nights you feel outnumbered
Baby, I'll be out there somewhere

(How long?)

Baby, I'll be out there somewhere,
somewhere, somewhere

(How long?)

Baby, I'll be out there somewhere, somewhere
