

Omen – Disclosure ft. Sam Smith

I'm feeling something, something different
When you left, my picture change
I was blinded, I'd not envisioned
The same face in a different frame

It's an omen,
Caught my baby crying, saw the silver lining
It must be an omen
Needed you to show me, without you I am lonely

My mind would rule my heart
I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark
It left me torn apart,
But now I see your tears are an omen

Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh
Oh-Oh-Oh-Omen

You were waiting, I was vacant
You left before my eyes,
Then it hit me, you're relocating
And I need you by my side

It's an omen,
Caught my baby crying, saw the silver lining
It must be an omen
Needed you to show me, without you I am lonely

My mind would rule my heart
I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark
It left me torn apart,
But now I see your tears are an omen

My mind would rule my heart
I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark
It left me torn apart,

But now I see your tears are an omen

Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh

Oh-Oh-Oh-Omen

Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh

Oh-Oh-Oh-Omen
