

Be Good – Dominik Dudek

What if I never tried to be a bit crazy
In my time, my time
'Cause everything I have done cannot matter if there is no life
Everyone looks at me when I make mistakes
That really hurt, oh hurt
But everytime, no matter what I do,
I want to be good
Everybody has somebody, I have myself
When did they happen to disappear, disappear
I'm not waiting for another 'maybe'
You can say it's wrong but I'm not crazy
All I want is to be good
What if there is no time for someone who has lost everything, everything
When it shows the other side
Then we can only watch, only watch Certain things will never change and we cannot explain them, explain them
But everytime, no matter what I do,
I want to be good
Everybody has somebody, I have myself
When did they happen to disappear, disappear
I'm not waiting for another 'maybe'
You can say it's wrong but I'm not crazy
All I want is to be good
Everybody has somebody, I have myself
When did they happen to disappear, disappear
I'm not waiting for another 'maybe'
You can say it's wrong but I'm not crazy
All I want is to be good
All I want is to be good
