

Sometimes – DonkeyBoy

Nationwide

Hey there people here I come
Step the side, Donkeyboys ain't what you want
But sometimes, I need somebody
Who can make me feel alright,
And shades me from the streetlights
I'm breaking up, I need someone
Who needs somebody now
People change, change because of who I am
If you don't, than you and I won't get along
But sometimes, I need somebody
Who can make me feel alright,
And shades me from the streetlights
I'm breaking up, I need someone
Who needs somebody now
I need somebody who can make me feel alright,
And shades me from the streetlights
I'm breaking up, I need someone
Who needs somebody now
All these thoughts come too my head
But sometimes, I need somebody
Who can make me feel
Alright,
And shades me from the streetlights
I'm breaking up, I need someone
Who needs somebody now
I need somebody who can make me feel alright,
And shades me from the streetlights
I'm breaking up, I need someone
Who needs somebody now
Make me feel alright
