

Moonlight – Down low

Listen to these takes from the dark
A mistress stranded in the park
Underneath the larch
She's laying face down
On the ground without a sound
Her causal shoes and straps
Are nowhere to be found
What's going down
How can this be respectfully
But yes she's history,
So many things in this world
That she'll never see
But the mistress seems thight
Holding her purse to the right
Deep in the moonlight at night

In the late night mist
A dead cold body lays adrift,
Standing bold you stubble over
Now and take a whiff
Fear comes inside your brain
Feel the brain and the sane
Hair standing straight
Tramadie goose bumps starts to drain
Gently you reach out for the corpse
In the orpse, who can it be waiting
Standing in remorse,
Could it be a victim stabbed
By a knife in the knight
Or a lonely lover or a suicided wife

I want you, I want you to know,
That there's a light, a light at the end of the road
I'm frightened I'm scared and I don't know what to do,
(Don't go!)
Darkness coming after you!

I want you, I want you to know,
That there's a light, a light at the end of the road
I'm frightened I'm scared and I don't know what to do,
(Don't go!)
Darkness coming after you!

Threw the bushes stalks a masked man
Blood on his hand after fulfilling his evil plan
He's head back to his normal life
Back to his home which is nice and his wife
Just to be precise
As he walks he starts to remenice
About the mistress fell in his deadly kiss
Now see the darkness shining from his eyesight
These are the takes steaming
Beaming, from the moonlight

In the early morning rain, raindrops across my pain
Feeling fear, I wish over to see what's to gain
Revealing is the sign, in my mind, it designs
Uncontrollable, vicious sightenings in the crime
I'm in a state if grieving, for this human being
Standing dazed I can't believe what I'm seeing
You better never walk alone by yourself in the park
These are the tragic takes drifting from the deep dark!

I want you, i want you to know,
That there's a light, a light at the end of the road
I'm frightened I'm scared and I don't know what to do,
(Don't go!)
Darkness coming after you!

Oo You won't know, you won't know what to do
Yeah when darkness is coming after you

Oo You won't know, you won't know what to do
Ooh When darkness's after you

I'm frightened I'm scared and I don't know what to do,

(Don't go!)

Darkness coming after you!

I want you, I want you to know,

That there's a light, a light at the end of the road

I'm frightened I'm scared and I don't know what to do,

(Don't go!)

Darkness coming after you!
