LIMBO – DPR IAN

Don't waste your tears
On somebody you can't even save
Throw me down to the wolves
It's where I belong
See you on the other side
Where our worlds will collide
Take what's yours
Just leave me in two pieces (ooh)
I left my heart down in the basement
Where all the ravens take their turns
I took you out of my existence
Only to crawl back into your arms
Knowing how much it would take away
Do you think we are really dreamin'?
Can someone tell me where I am?
I'm running out of sand
I took you out of my existence
Only to crawl back into your arms
Knowing it would make me go insane
(Go)
I left my heart down in the basement
Where all the ravens take their turns
I took you out of my existence
Only to crawl back into your arms
Knowing how much it would take away
