

Love me or not – DubFX

You could love me or not
But either way
I've got to wake up to face another day
Tomorrow morning
You could love me or not
But either way
I've got the sunrise looking in my eyes
And I know
I could love you or not
But either way you've got to wake up
To face another day tomorrow morning
Tomorrow morning, mhm whoo-o-oo
I'm not getting used to
My new solitude
I've still got a photo in my
Wallet of you, ooh
I've got to stop myself
From picking up the phone
And just calling you
I've got to keep my emotions together
And forever so
Don't be afraid
I can't erase memories
With the actions I seize
And I
Cannot erase your smile and your eyes
With your hair in the breeze
The only way for me to move on
Is to write it in a song that life goes on
And I'm kicked off this earth
With no one to hold, its getting cold
And my chest hurts
You could love me or not
But either way
I've got to wake up to face another day
Tomorrow morning

You could love me or not
But either way
I've got the sunrise looking in my eyes
And I know
I could love you or not
But either way you've got to wake up
To face another day tomorrow morning
Tomorrow morning
What will the world bring
What will the world bring?
What will it bring to me
You've got to be strong
Your story goes on and on
Even though our page is gone
Cause there's a world out there
And even though it ain't fair
You've got to not be scared cause I swear
I'll always be true to you
Forgetting your smiles and eyes
What I could never do
Your love is skin deep with me
You could never be replaced
Even though you know my heart is free
Don't be afraid
Cannot erase your smile and your eyes
And my chest hurts
You could love me or not
But either way
I've got to wake up to face another day
Tomorrow morning
You could love me or not
But either way

I've got the sunrise looking in my eyes
And I know
I could love you or not
But either way you've got to wake up
To face another day tomorrow morning
Tomorrow morning,
Yeeeeaaaaaah
What will the world bring
You could love me or not
But either way
I've got to wake up to face another day
Tomorrow morning
You could love me or not
But either way
I've got the sunrise looking in my eyes
And I know
I could love you or not
But either way I've got to wake up
To face another day tomorrow morning
Tomorrow morning
What will the world bring?
