

Falling Free – Eivor

Your eyes tell me stories
That I can understand
I have seen the future written in your hand
Now I surrender
I am falling down
Hoping you will catch me
Before I hit the ground
You are all I see
For you I am falling free
I have walked the steepest mountains,
Sailed the seven seas
I have been looking for you
In every part of me
Now I surrender
I am falling down
Hoping you will catch me
Before I hit the ground
You are all I see
For you I am falling free
You, my destiny
For you I am falling free
You are all I see
For you I am falling free
