

Tomorrow – Electric Youth

As the sun starts rising, warming up the sand
Gonna wake this time to further on the plan
And with an early start
The world is in your hands
But as the clock strikes noon,
Still right there where I stand
But you know,
The day's not nearly done
And you're not the only one
With desire to see it through
So let's say
If not today
Tomorrow, tomorrow,
Tomorrow, tomorrow
Tomorrow, tomorrow
We can see it through, if not today,
Tomorrow, tomorrow,
Tomorrow, tomorrow,
Tomorrow, tomorrow,
We can try again, if not today
As the sun starts setting, leaving us again,
Gonna take this time to further on the plan
And with an early start
The world is in your hands,
But as the clock strikes twelve,
Still right there where I stand
But you know,
The day's not nearly done
And you're not the only one
With desire to see it through,
So let's say,
If not today
Tomorrow, tomorrow,
Tomorrow, tomorrow
Tomorrow, tomorrow
We can see it through, if not today,

Tomorrow, tomorrow,
Tomorrow, tomorrow,
Tomorrow, tomorrow,
We can try again, if not today
Tomorrow, tomorrow,
Tomorrow, tomorrow
Tomorrow, tomorrow
We can see it through, if not today
Please believe me now, believe me now
