

Where Did You Go – Electric Youth

Driving through the canyon walls
Waiting for the sun to fall on my face now
We're at the garden
Wanting to place you
You're at the garden, oh
Where did you go?
Where did you go?
Watching as our blossom grows
Stranger and more beautiful like a painting
We walk in silence
Wanting the same things
She sheds her eyes, oh no
Where did you go? (Go go)
I want to know (Oh oh)
Where did you go? (Go go)
I want to know (Oh oh)
Where did you go? (Go go)
I want to know (Oh oh)
Where did you go?
Where did you go?
Wandering through the wayward ponds
Messages come through the suns on the edge
And they remind me
How delicate our days
Yes they remind me, oh
Where did you go? (Go go)
I want to know (Oh oh)
Where did you go? (Go go)
I want to know (Oh oh)
Where did you go? (Go go)
I want to know (Oh oh)
Where did you go?
Where did you go?
Where did you go?
Where did you go?
