

You don't know me – Elizabeth Gillies

You think you know me
But you don't know me
You think you own me
But you can't control me
You look at me and
There's just one thing that you see
So listen to me
Listen to me
You push me back
I'll push you back
Harder, harder
You scream at me
I'll scream at you
Louder, l-l-l-l-louder
I'm dangerous, I'm warning you
But you're not afraid of me
And I can't convince you
You don't know me
You think you got me
But you don't get me
You think you want me
But you don't know what you're getting into There's so much more to me than what
You think you see
So listen to me
Just listen to me
