

99 boys – Emeline

At any bar on any night
I'll meet all your lookalikes
Same tattoos and pick-up lines
Vintage t-shirt, hazel eyes
You're not special, you're just a guy
Who I'll replace in zero time
On any street at every light
99 boys like you go by
Guess I kinda always knew that
I was sleeping with a douche bag
All the time I wasted
Worst of all, you're basic
Yeah, you used to be the cutest
'Til you started acting stupid
Instead of trying to blame you
I'll just copy-paste you
I remember the night, I remember the place
When he looked in my eyes
Said he's hard to replace
And he thought I would cry
But I laughed in his face and said
At any bar on any night
I'll meet all your lookalikes
Same tattoos and pick-up lines
Vintage t-shirt, hazel eyes
You're not special, you're just a guy
Who I'll replace in zero time
On any street at every light
99 boys like you go by
99 boys like you go by
99 boys like you go by
Overhead, you've been the saddest
'Cause you lost one of the baddest
Karma made me do it
Don't go blaming cupid
All your girls are made of magic

Trippin' over something average
But I don't waste time stressin'
I'm over you in seconds
I remember the night, I remember the place
When he looked in my eyes
Said he's hard to replace
And he thought I would cry
But I laughed in his face and said
At any bar on any night
I'll meet all your lookalikes
Same tattoos and pick-up lines
Vintage t-shirt, hazel eyes
You're not special, you're just a guy
Who I'll replace in zero time
On any street at every light
99 boys like you go by
99 boys like you go by
99 boys like you go by
For every one, there's 99
For every one, there's 99
For every one, there's 99
99
Boys like you go by
