

Goodbye – Erica Gimpel

Do you remember when you told me you
Loved me?
Do you remember when you told me you cared?
Now I'm standing on the edge of forever
And for the first time I confess I'm scared
'Cause it's our last night
Our last kiss
So turn down the
Lights and hold me
Oh, lie to me until I believe
I will be here in your arms for eternity
I remember the first time you touched me
I remember the first time I cried
Oh, I remember every minute, every hour
And I remember the first time you lied
'Cause it's our last night
Our last kiss
So turn down the lights and hold me
Oh, lie to me until I believe
I will be here in your arms for eternity
But I know, baby
And I hear you
I understand you completely
It's over for you
I love you baby
But I will say goodbye
But I know, baby
And I hear you
I understand you completely
It's over for you
I love you baby
But I will say goodbye
Goodbye
