

Arrival – Exlibris

Let me take you on a journey
To where time and space
Exist no more
Don't hesitate to join me
It's a place where dreams
Become so real
The road lies before you
It's the only way
You can do no wrong
Reach deeper into your soul
And find the place where Life stands still
Can you hear me?
I'll be waiting forevermore
Your nightmares won't stop
You from going on
Can you see me?
I'll be waiting to take you home
Your light finally
Will burn where it belongs
Let me take you on a journey
I will show you things
You've never seen
Don't think about returning
We can stay as long
As you will need
So come a little closer
Don't you be afraid
I will be your guide
And when the night is over
We are there again,
Just close your eyes
Can you hear me?
I'll be waiting forevermore
Your nightmares won't stop
You from going on

Can you see me?
I'll be waiting to take you home
Your light finally
Will burn
Through the firestorm you walk alone
The road you're on will take you home
Soon you'll reach the place
Where you can stay
Through the firestorm you walk alone
You got the will to carry on
Shine your light for all
Who lost their way
