

Closer ft. Tom Englund & Piotr Rutkowski – Exlibris

I wake up
To the sounds of the footsteps
Walking out the door
Not knowing what the time is
Or where I've been the night before
Surrounded by darkness
Feels like I've been running for so long and if anything's not ever what it seems Never ever what it seems
This could be a dream within a dream
Right now
It's time to break out
From a dream that never came
Time to step back
'Cause it's not a losing game
I'm not afraid of falling
So take me closer to the edge
I turn around,
See my shadow fading from the wall
Is this a road to freedom
Or am I heading for a fall
Beyond the veil of silence
I am here now and feel so strong
Feel so strong
But it never ends,
It never fades
And it will never pass
The final step
Towards the end,
Back through the looking glass
But now
But now
It's time to break out
From a dream that never came
Take a step back

'Cause it's not a losing game
I'm not afraid of falling
So take me closer to the edge
Break out
From a dream that never came
Take a step back
'Cause it's not a losing game
I'm not afraid of falling
So take me closer to the edge
I'm not afraid of falling
So take me closer to the edge
