

Escape velocity – Exlibris

Now's the highest time
Nothing to wait for
Better don't look back
Go and leave the earth
The world is turning faster
Every single day
Raising up the glasses,
Drinking yesterday
It is hard to follow,
Hard to find your way
Walking down a forthright alley
You may go astray
Looking in the mirror
You can't see your face
You are just a copy
Of somebody else
No!
Selling soul like everybody
You are breaking through
It is not so easy now
To stand and face the truth
Run away
From the faceless place
We are waiting for you
Far away,
Somewhere out in space
We are waiting for you
Run away
From the faceless place
We are waiting for you
Far away,
Somewhere out in space
We are waiting for you
Run away
From the faceless place
We are waiting for you

Far away,
Somewhere out in space
We are waiting for you
Waiting for you
