

Sanah & Matteo Bocelli – Falling back

Falling back, falling back,
Falling back to you
Falling back, falling back,
Falling back to you
Feels like the war is done
'Cause the pain no longer hurts
And I think this thing could walk
Somebody broke us up
We were torn apart
And the feelings still remained
Had to get over the shame
I can still be a part of you
Evil soul that I ever knew
I can still be a part of you
Falling back to you
This is what I wanted
For sure, for sure
I'm coming back to you
This is what I wanted
For sure, for sure
I'm coming back
I know
you made me lose my trust
But that's all in the past
I still believe in us
I didn't want those tears
You made me lose my fears
This is a special year
I know I need you here
When I first lost your love
I was broken like a glass
And it happened all so fast
I always kept some hope
Tried to stay afloat
I knew you would come around
'Cause I didn't want to drown

I can still be a part of you
It was all that I ever knew
I can still be a part of you
Falling back to you
This is what I wanted
For sure, for sure
I'm coming back to you
This is what I wanted
For sure, for sure
I'm coming back
I know you made me lose my trust
But that's all in the past
I know I need you here
Falling back to you
To you
Falling back to you
To you
Falling back to you
To you
Falling back to you
To you
Falling back to you
