

Husavik – Fire Saga

Húsavík

All by myself

With this great, big world before me

But it's all for someone else

I've tried and tried again

To let you know just where my heart is

To tell the truth and not pretend

All I needed was to get away

Just to realize that I was meant to stay

Where the mountains sing

Through the screams of seagulls

Where the whales can live

'cause they're gentle people

In my hometown, my hometown

Thought I made it clear, do I have to say it?

It was always there, we just didn't see it

All I need is you and me and my home

Vera með þér, með þér

Í Húsavík við Skjálfanda

Í heimabær minn

You want the world

All the neon lights and billboards

To be seen and to be heard

And I followed you

But now I know what makes me happy

And I can tell you feel it too

Where the mountains sing

through the screams of seagulls

Where the whales can live

'cause they're gentle people

In my hometown, my hometown

Where the northern lights burst out in colors

And the magic nights surpass all others

Það eina sem ég þrái er

, að vera með þér, með þér

Í Húsavík við Skjálfanda

My home, my hometown
