Rescued – Foo Fighters

It came in a flash It came out of nowhere It happened so fast And then it was over Are you thinking, what I'm thinking? Is this happening now? Are you feeling, what I'm feeling? This is happening now We're all free to some degree To dance under the lights I'm just waiting to be rescued, Bring me back to life Kings and queens and in-betweens, We all deserve the right I'm just waiting to be rescued I'm just waiting to be rescued We're all just waiting to be rescued tonight I fell in a trap My heart's getting colder It's coming on fast It's over my shoulder Are you thinking, what I'm thinking? Is this happening now? Are you feeling, what I'm feeling? This is happening now We're all free to some degree To dance under the lights I'm just waiting to be rescued, Bring me back to life Kings and queens and in-betweens, We all deserve the right I'm just waiting to be rescued I'm just waiting to be rescued We're all just waiting to be rescued tonight To be rescued tonight Rescue me tonight
