Let me go – Gary Barlow

A room full of sadness A broken heart

And only me to blame For every single part

No Science or Religion Could make this whole

To be loved, but never loved To have, but never hold

It's a life alone, and a desperate need To be held to be loved so

This is gonna take a bit of getting used to, But i know what's right for you

Fly high and let me go That sky will save your soul

When you pass by then you'll know That this gonna take a bit of getting used to but i know what's right for you

Let me go

A head full of madness And no where safe

When tears aren't big enough, and love turns into hate It's a life alone, and a desperate need

To be held to be loved so That this gonna take a bit of getting used to But i know what's right For you

Fly high and let me go That sky will save your soul

When you pass by then you'll know That this gonna take a bit of getting used to But i know what's right for you

So let me go life will get better Find the love i never gave ya

I know you lie there waiting all night long, So find where you belong

Fly high and let me go That sky will save your soul

Fly high and let me go That sky will save your soul

But this gonna take a bit of getting used to But i know what's right for you

Let me go
