

My Name is Ruin – Gary Numan

When they called me broken, I knew
When they called me evil, I knew
When they called me ruin, I knew
I would always find my way to you
When I begged forgiveness, they knew
When I begged for mercy, they knew
When I begged for nothing, they knew
I would always find my way to you
My name is ruin
My name is vengeance
My name is no one
And no one is calling
My name is ruin
My name is heartbreak
My name is lonely
My sorrow's and darkness
My name is ruin
My name is evil
My name's a war song
I'll sing you a new war
My name is ruin
My name is broken
My name is shameless
I'll tear your world open
When I called you poison, you knew
When I called you shameful, you knew
When I called you liar, you knew
I would always find my way to you
I'll show you ruin
I'll show you vengeance
I'll show you no one
And no one is calling
I'll show you ruin
I'll show you heartbreak
I'll show you lonely
A sorrow in darkness

I'll show you ruin
I'll show you evil
I'll sing you a war song
I'll sing you a new war
I'll show you ruin
I'll show you broken
I'll show you shameless
I'll tear your world open
