

A century of love – Geta Burlacu

The rain has touched my steps
The rain touched my smile
I'm going to its depth
It takes me to the sky
All the stars are falling down and now
I can reach the rainbow
Hold my hand and come with me
To my other way of being
This is all I mean
Be my everything
And remember
Our dreams together
This is all I need
Be my everything
And live forever
Ever, ever
All I need
Is to find a little place to live
In your heart
That's what I want
And to find the words to say
To find the words I've never said
The words I need to touch your world
And your life
To breathe your soul
A century is now
Not enough
For your love
This is all I need
This is all I mean
Be my everything
And remember
Our dreams together
This is all I need
Be my everything
And live forever

Ever, ever
All I need
Is to find a little place to live
In your heart
That's what I want
And to find the words to say
To find the words I've never said
The words I need to touch your world
And your life
To breathe your soul
A century is now
Not enough
For my love
