A century of love – Geta Burlacu

The rain has touched my steps

The rain touched my smile

I'm going to its depth

It takes me to the sky

All the stars are falling down and now

I can reach the rainbow

Hold my hand and come with me

To my other way of being

This is all I mean

Be my everything

And remember

Our dreams together

This is all I need

Be my everything

And live forever

Ever, ever

All I need

Is to find a little place to live

In your heart

That's what I want

And to find the words to say

To find the words I've never said

The words I need to touch your world

And your life

To breathe your soul

A century is now

Not enough

For your love

This is all I need

This is all I mean

Be my everything

And remember

Our dreams together

This is all I need

Be my everything

And live forever

Ever, ever
All I need
Is to find a little place to live
In your heart
That's what I want
And to find the words to say
To find the words I've never said
The words I need to touch your world
And your life
To breathe your soul
A century is now
Not enough
For my love
