

Pro Memoria – Ghost

Lucifer, whispering,
Silently into your mind
Who walks behind, who walks behind
Standing tall, invincible,
But do not forget your knives
To save your lives, to save your lives
Don't you forget about dying
Don't you forget about your friend death
Don't you forget that you will die
Ah
Don't you vomit savage slurs,
Spewed up wickedly
To hide from me, to hide from me
Navigate all alone on this
Tempestuous sea
To ride with me, to ride with me
Don't you forget about dying
Don't you forget about your friend death
Don't you forget that you will die
Don't you forget about dying
Don't you forget about your friend death
Don't you forget that you will die
Lucifer, whispering,
Silently into your mind
Who walks behind, who walks behind
Had you had the chance today,
You could've sold out too
Ain't that right Swede Saint Peter?
Don't you forget about dying
Don't you forget about your friend death
Don't you forget that you will die
Ah
Don't you forget about dying
Don't you forget about your friend death
Don't you forget that you will die
Ah

Don't you forget about dying
Don't you forget about your friend death
Don't you forget that you will die
Ah
