

Troubled Times – Green Day

What good is love and peace on Earth

When it's exclusive?

Where's the truth in the written word

If no one reads it?

A new day dawning

Comes without warning

So don't think twice

We live in troubled times

(Ah-ah, ah-ah)

We live in troubled times

(Ah-ah, ah-ah)

What part of history we've learned

When it's repeated?

Some things, we'll never overcome

If we don't seek it

The world stops turning

Paradise burning

So don't think twice

We live in troubled times

(Ah-ah, ah-ah)

We live in troubled times

(Ah-ah, ah-ah)

We live in troubled times

We run for cover

Like a skyscraper's falling down

And then I wonder

Like a troubled mind

What good is love and peace on Earth

When it's exclusive?

Where's the truth in the written word

If no one reads it?

A new day dawning

Comes without warning

So don't look twice

We live in troubled times

(Ah-ah, ah-ah)

We live in troubled times

(Ah-ah, ah-ah)

We live in troubled times

We live in troubled times

(Ah-ah, ah-ah)

We live in troubled times

(Ah-ah, ah-ah)

We live in troubled times
