

Hear Them Calling – Greta Salóme

Can you hear them calling?

Oh, they're calling out tonight

Now the skies are burning

Oh, they burn so bright

We shiver as we step into the cold, cold night

Then we're running, we are running now

I hear them calling me, I hear them whispering

They're singing: "Now we are coming home"

I hear them calling me, I hear them howling

Singing: "Now we are coming home"

Oh... oh...

See the shadows dancing

Oh, they dance for us tonight

And as I'm tossing and I'm turning

Oh, they come alive

We shiver as we step into the cold, cold night

Then we're running, we are running now

I hear them calling me, I hear them whispering

They're singing: "Now we are coming home"

I hear them calling me, I hear them howling

Singing: "Now we are coming home"

Oh... oh...

Can you hear them? I hear them calling me, oh...

Can you hear them? I hear them calling me, oh...

I hear them calling me, I hear them whispering

I hear them calling me, we're coming home

I hear them calling me, I hear them whispering

I hear them calling me, now we're coming home

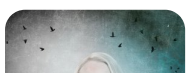

I hear them calling me, I hear them whispering

I hear them calling me, I hear them whispering

They're singing: "Now we are coming home"

I hear them calling me, I hear them howling

Singing: "Now we are coming home"
