

Leave me alone (Eurowizja 2007) – Hanna Pakarinen

I have to leave, but you are still sleeping
There's nothing to say, our time has run out
You took me to bed,
That's what you were seeking
But you don't even care what I am about
I wanna, I wanna wake you
Leave me alone, I wanna go home
I don't wanna see you so leave me alone
Leave me alone 'cause I feel like dying
Leave me alone, I wanna go home
The day will still come when I see you crying
'Cause you will get yours,
just leave me alone
But what if I stay
And wait til she comes home
She don't even know, she loves you in vain
The lies that you told will turn into sorrow
I gotta go crazy just to stay sane
I wanna, I wanna break you
Leave me alone, I wanna go home
I don't wanna see you so leave me alone
Leave me alone 'cause I feel like dying
Leave me alone, I wanna go home
The day will still come when I see you crying
'Cause you will get yours,
just leave me alone
I gotta, I gotta hate you
Leave me alone, I wanna go home
I don't wanna see you so leave me alone
Leave me alone 'cause I feel like dying
Leave me alone, I wanna go home
I couldn't care less if love just lies dying
So I let it die, just leave me alone
And this is goodbye, just leave me alone
