

Survivor – Helena Paparizou

Seven days and seven nights
You left me on my own
And gave me time to analyze
Why I was hanging on
You lock me out
Then come around
Your love would be
The killing kind
No, not this time
Just call me a survivor
Have to be a fighter
Gonna let you go, let you go
Just call me a survivor
Such a strong desire
Gonna let you go, let you go
Ask me for a second chance
How many is that now
If I want to live again
I have to turn you down
You lock me out
Then come around
Just call me a survivor
Have to be a fighter
Gonna let you go, let you go
Just call me a survivor
Such a strong desire
Gonna let you go, let you go
Just call me a survivor
You're beautiful but fire
Gonna let you go, let you go
Just call me a survivor
Such a strong desire
Gonna let it go, let it go
So many times I was dumb
Ignored the instinct to run
Not happening baby, no

Not into love suicide
My heart is way too much pride
To let you break me
Oho
Gonna let you go, let you go
Just call me a survivor
Such a strong desire
Just call me a survivor
You're beautiful but fire
Gonna let you go, let you go
I'm a survivor
Such a strong desire
I'm gonna survive
