Dreams - Hey

There is something in her eyes And I thing it's fear Why don't You tell me little girl Why are You so afraid Last night my father Came to my room alone He was stark naked Very quiet closed the door And it was not dream I still feel his hand On my trembling body And it was not dream I still feel his hand On my trembling body Come to me girl I hold you now You can really trust me You will never cry again 'Cause you've got your faith Put hands together Start talking to your God He will be listening 'Cause His mercy is so big And you fuckin' dad Gonna die in hell Gonna pay for all his sins
