

Karaoke – ifi ude

I've never thought I would put my freedom
In your hands, in your tiny hands
I've never thought I would give you my freedom
Till you came into the world

And our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea
And our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea

Your soul is like pure light
Guide me in the darkness
With you I'm not afraid of surprises
Or what the future will bring for me
What the future will bring for me

Achoro m ka i nwe obi uto (?)

(I want you to be happy)

Cause our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea
And our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea

And our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea
And our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea

Cause our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea
And our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea

And our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea
And our love is stronger than a flood
Bigger than the mountain
Deeper than the darkest sea
