

Wrecked – Imagine Dragons

Days pass by and my eyes stay dry,
And I think that I'm okay
'Til I find myself
In conversation, fading away
The way you smile, the way you walk
The time you took to teach me
All that you had taught
Tell me, how am I supposed to move on?
These days
I'm becoming everything that I hate
Wishing you were around but now it's too late
My mind is a place
That I can't escape your ghost
Sometimes I wish
That I could wish it all away
One more rainy day without you
Sometimes I wish
That I could see you one more day
One more rainy day
Oh, I'm a wreck without you here
Yeah, I'm a wreck since you've been gone
I've tried to put this all behind me
I think I was wrecked all along
Yeah, I'm a wreck
They say that the time will heal it,
The pain will go away
But everything, it reminds me of you
And it comes in waves
Way you laugh when your shoulders shook
The time you took to teach me
All that you had taught
Tell me, how am I supposed to move on?
These days
I'm becoming everything that I hate
Wishing you were around but now it's too late
My mind is a place

That I can't escape your ghost
Sometimes I wish
That I could wish it all away
One more rainy day without you
Sometimes I wish
That I could see you one more day
One more rainy day
Oh, I'm a wreck without you here
Yeah, I'm a wreck since you've been gone
I've tried to put this all behind me
I think I was wrecked all along
These days when I'm on the brink of the edge
Remember the words that you said
Remember the life you led You'd say, "Oh, suck it all up,
Don't get stuck in the mud
Thinkin' of things that you should have done"
I'll see you again, my loved one
I'll see you again, my loved one
Yeah, I'm a wreck
I'll see you again, my loved one
Yeah, I'm a wreck without you here
Yeah, I'm a wreck since you've been gone
I've tried to put this all behind me
I think I was wrecked all along
Yeah, I'm a wreck
Sometimes I wish
That I could wish it all away
One more rainy day without you
Sometimes I wish
That I could see you one more day
One more rainy day
