

For Life – Isis Gee

I had no choice
Perfectly clear from the start
I heard your voice
And I was falling
Into a space
Where daylight kisses moonlit skies
It was the place
Was written in your eyes
And oh, we made it
We finally found our way
And celebrating
Just where we...
We stand today
I'll let my heart show the way,
Oceans and mountains between us
Because your love
Is why
You made the wrong right
I will give my all
I will heed your call
For Life
I had no choice
Perfectly clear from the start
I will rejoice
Embrace your calling
And into a space
Where daylight kisses moonlit skies
You found my heart
And I knew it was
For Life
I'll let my heart show the way,
Oceans and mountains between us
Because your love
Is why
You made the wrong right
I will give my all

I will heed your call
