

Unknown – Jacob Banks

I believe in what I sell
Why does everyone hear me wrong?
If I told you different,
Would it sound the same?
Would it make a difference?
And anyway ooohh noo
I know I've done wrong, and I paid for it
It's your time to talk,
For once I'm listening
Say that you don't want me
Say that you don't need me
Tell me I'm the fool
Tell me you've been tortured
Tell me you've been beaten
Look what I've done to you
Even if it doesn't matter
Matter what's true
Say that you don't want me
Say that you don't need me
Tell me I'm the fool
Look at all this heartache, what is left?
Forgetting how it started,
This is how it ends oooooohh nooo
I know I've done some wrong,
I paid for it
But it's your time to talk,
For once I'm listening
Say that you don't want me
Say that you don't need me
Tell me I'm the fool
Tell me you've been tortured
Tell me you've been beaten
Look what I've done to you
Even if it doesn't matter
Matter what's true
Tell me that I'm unknown

To you
Woah woah woah woah woah
Woah woah woah woah woah
Say that you don't want me
Say that you don't need me
Tell me I'm the fool
Tell me you've been tortured
Tell me you've been beaten
Look what I've done to you
And even if it doesn't matter
Matter what's true
Say that you don't need me
Tell me I'm the fool
Tell me that it's over
Tell me that you mean it
This time was true
Tell me that I'm unknown
To you
