

Yandere – Jazmin Bean

I don't know, I just like you
And anyone who gets in the way, honey
Might get a handful of some shit
Or stay heavy-hearted
I know we all want one
That's not my fucking problem
Stay near
And you'll have nothing to fear
This might get a little messy, I'm sure
Heads rolling for the one I adore
This may become a little brutal if I'm honest
But it's any-anything for you my dear,
I promise
You know I like you
And anyone who gets in my way, darling
Might get a handful of some shit
Or stay heavy-hearted
Because it's cut-throat
To anyone who comes close
Be mine
And everything will be fine
This might get a little messy, I'm sure
Heads rolling for the one I adore
This may become a little brutal if I'm honest
But it's any-anything for you my dear,
I promise
This might get a little messy, I'm sure
Heads rolling for the one I adore
This may become a little brutal if I'm honest
But it's any-anything for you my dear,
I promise
This might get a little messy, I'm sure
Heads rolling for the one I adore
This may become a little brutal if I'm honest
But it's any-anything for you my dear,
I promise

This might get a little messy, I'm sure
Heads rolling for the one I adore
This may become a little brutal if I'm honest
But it's any-anything for you my dear,
I promise
This might get a little messy, I'm sure
Heads rolling for the one I adore
This may become a little brutal if I'm honest
But it's any-anything for you my dear,
I promise
