

Holding on – Jeff Scott Soto

I remember

The first time that I held you

I knew I never could let you go

You came into my life so unexpectedly

And now I'm gonna let you know

I'm gonna give you all that I can to give

'Cause, baby, without you, I can't live

Now I'm holding on forever

(Holding on, holding on)

If you wanna hold on too, oh

(Holding on, holding on)

'Cause now I'm holding on forever

'Cause it's you I don't wanna lose

You say that you

Think you found the feelings

Well, I'm hoping that they're true

'Cause I can't take another,

Another heartbreak

It's getting hard to start anew

I'd climb the highest mountain,

Cross the deepest seas

'Cause, mama, you don't know

What you mean to me

Now I'm holding on forever

(Holding on, holding on)

If you wanna hold on too, oh

(Holding on, holding on)

'Cause now I'm holding on forever

'Cause it's you I don't wanna lose

I'd climb the highest mountain,

Cross the deepest seas

'Cause, mama, you don't know

What you mean to me

Now I'm holding on forever

(Holding on, holding on)

If you wanna hold on too, oh

(Holding on, holding on)

'Cause now I'm holding on forever

'Cause it's you I don't wanna lose

'Cause now I'm holding on forever

'Cause it's you

Don't wanna, don't wanna, don't wanna

Lose
