

Sensitive Kind – J.J. Cale

Don't take her for granted,
She has a hard time
Don't misunderstand her
Or play with her mind
Treat her so gently,
It will pay you in time
You've got to know
She's the sensitive kind

Tell her you love her,
Each and every night
And you will discover
She will treat you right
If you believe,
I know you will find
There ain't nothing like
The sensitive kind
(Muza)

She gets so lonely
Waiting for you
You are the only
Thing to help her through
Don't take her for granted,
She has a hard time
You've got to know
She's the sensitive kind
