

Don't Watch Me Cry – Jorja Smith

Oh, it hurts the most
'cause I don't know the cause
Maybe I shouldn't have cried when you left and told me not to wait
Oh, it kills the most
To say that I still care
Now I'm left tryna rewind
the times you held and kissed me there
I wonder if you're thinkin',
"Is she alright all alone?"
I wonder if you tried to call
But couldn't find your phone
Have I ever crossed your thoughts
Because your name's all over mine?
A moment in time, don't watch me cry
A moment in time, don't watch me cry
I'm not crying 'cause you left me on my own
I'm not crying
'cause you left me with no warning
I'm just crying
'cause I can't escape what could've been
Are you aware when you set me free?
All I can do is let my heart bleed
Oh, it's harder when you
Can't see through their thoughts
Not that I wanna get in
But I want to see how your mind works
No, it's harder when they don't know
What they've done
Thinking it's best that they leave,
Meaning that I'll have to move on Oh, I wonder if you're thinkin',
"Is she alright all alone?"
I wonder if you tried to call
But couldn't find your phone
Have I ever crossed your thoughts

because your name's all over mine
A moment in time, don't watch me cry
A moment in time, don't watch me cry
I'm not crying 'cause you left me on my own
I'm not crying
'cause you left me with no warning
I'm just crying
'cause I can't escape what could've been
Are you aware when you set me free?
All I can do is let my heart bleed
