

On my own – Julia Pietrucha

Don't look at me
Like you know who I am
Just because I'm blond and thin it's easy to tease
You can try to bring me down now, if you Please
But there ain't nobody to take away my peace
Because I've got it on my own
My Own
My Own
So don't tell me how I should live
All this posts and hateful words
Have nothing to give
You can hide and say
My live's been given to me
But there ain't nobody to thank
For all that I've got
Because I've got it on my own
My Own
My Own
So don't wake me up
While I dream
Inspite of You knocking Me down
I'm starting To Breathe
You've tried to take my life away from me
But I won't conceal to change
The way that I feel
Because I've got here on my own
My Own
My Own
