

WITCH-ER Tarohoro – Justyna Steczkowska

Oh, mother nature
How you're rotting to the very core
A body so ancient
You can see the writings on the wall

Don't fear the Witcher
If you're a believer

Roads of faith they will lead the way
To the open gates of love
Whispers say we gon' make a change
Would you just believe in them

Jarga
Drago
Wese
Trado

Wejar

Oh, Mother Nature
like a Phoenix you will be reborn
Pure over tainted
It's the renaissance you can't avoid

Don't fear the Witcher
If you're a believer

Roads of faith they will lead the way
To the open gates of love
Whispers say we gon' make a change
Would you just believe in them

Roads of faith they will lead the way
To the open gates of love
Whispers say we gon' make a change
Would you just believe in them
