

Blame it on the moon – Katie Melua

Gonna blame it on the moon,
Didn't want to fall in love
Again so soon
I was fine, feeling strong,
Didn't want to fall in love
With anyone
Now
That it's gone too far to call for a halt,
I'll blame it on the moon
'Cause it's not my fault;
I didn't think that this would Happen so soon
So I'll blame it on the moon
I was happy to be free
Didn't think I'd give myself
So easily
Guilty feelings in the night
As I wonder is it wrong
To feel so right
Now
That it's gone too far to call for a halt,
I'll blame it on the moon
'Cause it's not my fault;
I didn't think that this would happen so soon
So I'll blame it on the moon
Now
That it's gone too far to call for a halt,
I'll blame it on the moon
'Cause it's not my fault;
I didn't think that this would happen so soon
So I'll blame it on the moon
So I'll blame it on the moon
