

Last Days Of You – Kidburn

These are the last days of you
But I won't forget the blue
Of your eyes
Baby tell me you'll be mine
When school is over
If you'd only knew
That what I felt was true
But you lied
When you said that you were mine
All mine forever
The moment's gone
I'm bound to fall
We're both becoming cynical
I won't forget us,
Walking hand in hand
But baby now
We're only Lovers
Waiting for the end to come
I leave my life right in your hands
So baby you will understand
My heart
It's still burning for you
Through the lines
Of my songs you'll find me crying
For those stolen moments
If only I could turn back time
Then maybe you could tell me why
Some stories
Never see the light
The moment's gone
I'm bound to fall
We're both becoming cynical
I won't forget us,
Walking hand in hand
But baby now
We're only Lovers

Waiting for the end to come
I leave my life right in your hands
So baby you will understand me
We're only Lovers
Waiting for a war to come
I leave my life right in your hands
So baby you will understand my heart
The moment's gone
I'm bound to fall
We're both becoming cynical
I won't forget us,
Walking hand in hand
But baby now
We're only Lovers
So baby you will understand me
We're only Lovers
So baby you will understand my heart
These are the last days of you
These are the last days of you
These are the last days of you
These are the last days of you
