

Hater – Korn

You can't bring me down
Already had my life turned upside down
I ride a downward spiral round and round
But I keep flying, I keep fighting
You won't ever bring me down!
I'm good, I'm fine, this life divine
No hate, no shame, no one to blame
You might despise your life
Realize I won't chastise
Even if you think you can bring me down
Already had my life turned upside down
I'm riding down the spiral round and round
But I keep flying, I keep fighting
You won't ever bring me down, down, down,
Down, down!
You won't ever bring me down, down, down,
Down, down!
You won't ever bring me
I can't escape from your disdain
Your hurt, your pain, your drama is lame
Why can't you find some peace inside
I won't chastise
Even when you think you can bring me down
Already had my life turned upside down
I'm riding down the spiral round and round
But I keep flying, I keep fighting
You won't ever bring me down, down, down,
Down,down!
You won't ever bring me down, down, down,
Down, down!
You won't ever bring me
HATER HATER HATER
HATER HATER HATER
I'm good, I'm fine this life's divine
No hate, no shame, no one to blame
Why can't you find some peace inside?

Hater hater hater hater hater
