

Asian Heart – Laban

When I look at you
Gazing with almond eyes
I want you too
No matter the price
The photography of you
Is almost as good as love
Got to get away
'Cause nobody wants me
Here's no place to stay
Nowhere to go
I'll leave it any day
For something as good as love
Asian heart, I will never let go
(I'll be so good to you)
We're apart but you're so near to me
Asian heart, I will love you, I know
(I'll be so good to you)
Through the night, you are all I can see
(I will be so good)
(Treat you like I should)
(I will understand)
(Treat you like a man)
(For your very eyes)
(I will be so nice)
Asian heart
I can almost touch
Your hair and your body
Would it be too much
To tell you the truth?
The picture in my head
Is almost as good as love, ooh, yeah
Other girls than me
Have done what I'm doing
Then how can it be
They judge me so hard?
In my fantasy

It's nearly as good as love
Asian heart, I will never let go
(I'll be so good to you)
We're apart but you're so near to me
Asian heart, I will love you, I know
(I'll be so good to you)
Through the night, you are all I can see
(I will be so good)
(Treat you like I should)
(I will understand)
(Treat you like a man)
(For your very eyes)
(I will be so nice)
Asian heart, I will never let go
(I'll be so good to you)
We're apart but you're so near to me
Asian heart, I will love you, I know
(I'll be so good to you)
Through the night, you are all I can see
Asian heart, I would never, never let go
(I'll be so good to you)
We're apart but you're near, so near to me
Asian heart, I will love you so, I know
(I'll be so good to you)
