

Happy Mistake – Lady Gaga

I'm acting in this play of
Comedy with tragic words
The audience was smilin'
Cheerin' on a scene absurd
I can try to hide behind the makeup,
But the show must go on
I feel so crazy
My head is filled with broken mirrors
So many, I can't look away
I'm in a bad way
If I could fix the broken pieces
Then I'd have a happy mistake
A lonely disposition
Portraits of a strung-out girl
How'd I get so addicted
To the love of the whole world?
I could try to hide behind the makeup,
But the show must go on
I feel so crazy
My head is filled with broken mirrors
So many, I can't look away
I'm in a bad way
If I could fix the broken pieces
Then I'd have a happy mistake
If I could bottle up a sunny day
So brilliantly
It'd wash away the sad mistakes
And I could hold my heart in a safe place
All I need to breathe
Is one happy mistake
Ooh
Ooh-ah
Make my
Happy mistake
