

Laika Party – Emmy

[illegible]

Bum-bum

Through the comets and the stones, she is howling for her bones

Singing along to the stars and sun

And if she didn't fly, nor would you and I

A forever hero for humankind

went above the clouds

Rocket going high,

then they said goodbye

She still wonders why,

but she loves to fly

I hope Laika never died, and that she spins around us still

And that she has a party in the air, and always will

I hope that she is dancing every night,

among the stars

I hope Laika is alive

Laika party in the sky

Laika party in the sky
