

One more time – Laura Pausini

Nothing I must do,
Nowhere I should be,
No one in my life,
To answer to but me

No more candlelight
No more purple skies
No one to be near
As my heart slowly dies

If I could hold you one more time
Like in the days when you were mine
I'd look at you 'till I was blind
So you would stay

I'd say a prayer each time you'd smile
Cradle the moments like a child
I'd stop the world if only I
Could hold you one more time

(hmmmmmm)

I've memorized your face
I know your touch by heart
Still lost in your embrace
I'd dream on where you are

(hmmm)

If I could hold you one more time
Like in the days when you were mine
I'd look at you 'till I was blind
So you would stay

I'd say a prayer each time you'd smile
Cradle the moments like a child

I'd stop the world if only I
Could hold you one more time

One more time
