

Lighter – Kyle Alessandro

Gold girl dressed in ice
A heart as dark as night
You got me to dim my light
No more
I really think I bought your lies
Did anything to keep you mine
You kept me hooked on your line
No more
Somewhere along the way, I lost my mind
I had to walk a hundred thousand miles
I'm not afraid to set it all on fire
I won't fall again,
I'll be my own lighter
(-----)
Nothing can burn me now
(-----)
I'll be my own lighter
I feel a spark inside me,
I don't need savin'
No way, no way,
'cause I'm my own, I'm my own lighter
I'm tired of a million tries
To fight the signs
And when everybody tried to tell me
I should've known that it was time
To break free
Your reigns that kept me at your mercy
I'll burn them to the ground
No more, no more, ignite the fire
Somewhere along the way, I lost my mind
I had to walk a hundred thousand miles
I'm not afraid to set it all on fire
I won't fall again,
I'll be my own lighter
(-----)
Nothing can burn me now

I'll be my own lighter

I feel a spark inside me,

I don't need savin'

No way, no way,

'cause I'm my own, I'm my own lighter

Silence fills the room

And I've taken off my jewels

I wish none of this was true

But there's a fire growing too, yeah!

Nothing can burn me now

I'll be my own lighter

I feel a spark inside me,

I don't need savin'

No way, no way,

'cause I'm my own, I'm my own lighter

Nothing can burn me down

I'm my own, I'm my own lighter
